-Some of the insurance companies re-—Some of the insurance companies require, before paying the money upon a person's life, a certificate from the physician, minister and undertaker, of death. But during the late epidemic many persons died and it will be found impossible to furnish a certificate of their death. As for instance: Mr. Peter A. Tighe died; as also did the physician, minister and undertaker, and although his life was insured in one of our life insurance companies, and no doubt remains of his death, yet it is probable that; a suit will be had before the company will pay the money.

—(Aux merchania as well as our neighbors -Our merchants as well as our neighbors

—Our merchants as well as our neighbors will, no doubt, be surprised at the following amount of business trainsacted in the two short weeks since the fearful epidemic passed away from this city: The total stock of cotion on hand last Friday was 50,231 bales, against 28,889 baies at the same time last year. The sales during the official week were 19,400 bales, against 10,500 bales for the same work last year. Total receipts since Septem-1, 1878, were 56,220 bales, against 95,125 bales last year at the same time, showing a decrease in the receipts of 38,905 bales. But take into consideration that last year we received cotion every day, and this year barely three weeks; the difference is very small. -The Holston (Tenn.) Methodist, referring

The Holston (Tenn.) —The Cotton News association, according The Cotton News association, according to adjournment, held a meeting resterday evening, with President Rambant in the chair. After considerable discussion the president stated the debt to the small, and that the amount owing the association would probably cover the indebtedness. Mr. La Hache, the secretary, was instructed to collect all money owing the association, and after paying off the indebtedness to turn over any and all funds left in his hands to the board of directors. The committee appointed to conter with the directors of the cotton exchange, reported that the members of this association would be received as members of the association would be received as members of the association would be received as members of the natural member of this association can be assessed for any back debts of the exchange. The financial committee reported sufficient funds on hand to pay all the indebtedness of the association. Washington Capital: "The citizens of washington have made arrangements for a recoption and testimonfal to Hon Casey Young, the present member from Tennessee, and Colonel Keating, the head journalist from that State. These gentlemen never filnehed in behalf of the suffering during the deadly pestlience that so recently bereaved the south. We are glad to note the fact that our people are arranging a proper exhibition of respect to the bravery and unselfishness of these two noble gentlemen. The one neglected his personal interests and his campaign to attend to the need and necessities of the sick and dying; the other, with his employes' corpses about him, took his place at the case, and managed the forms of his journal without a phase of fear." MERIT RECOGNIZED. ouis Daltroff, Chief of the Howard Burlal Corps, Receives the Reward that is his Due for Faithful Work.

We have particular pleasure in making a place for the following letters, and fulfill a duty we have long had before us to bear our personal testimony to the promptness, fearlessness and delicacy with which Mr. Daliroff performed the very disagreeable duties that devolved upon him. He is one of the bravest of the brave. He not only closed the eyes and covered the face of the dead—victims of the yellow-fever—but he often prepared them with his own hands for their last resting-place and put them away as decorously as the searcity of labor and brave men like himself would permit. His task was one to test the highest courage, but he did not flinch—standing to his post all through the fever and coming out of it, thank God, unscathed. His was the highest type of moral courage, and he deserved these letters, which we indorse ag-in:

MEMPHIS, TENS., November 15, 1878.

Louis Daltroff: Louis Daltroff:

DEAR SIR—In parting with you as superintendent of burials of the Howard association, permit me to express to you my thanks for the faithful and efficient manner in which, at all times, whether in the night or day, sunshine or rain, you have responded to every demand on you for attention, and also for the uniform courtesy of manner to myself and all coming within your attention. With most sincere regards, I am your true friend,

Superintendent Nurses, Howard Association.

MEMPHIS, TENN., November 15, 1878. ir. Louis Daltroff: Mr. Louis Daitroff:

Dear Sir—It affords me more than ordinary pleasure to bear evidence to the efficient manner in which you have performed your duties during the epidemic just ending. Your work attending to the burial of the "Howard dead" was the most disagreeable of any. I have ever found you ready, day or night, and in sunshine and rain. With my best wishes for your success in life, I am most truly your friend,

A. D. LANGSTAFF, President.
